

Bourgogne Aligoté

REGION: Burgundy

NAME: AOC Bourgogne Aligoté

PLACE NAME: Parcels assembling in "Marlot" say , in Clou and in Bignon .

PRODUCTION SITE : Municipality of Nantoux .

TOTAL AREA : 1,20ha

EXPOSURE : WEST

SOIL: Clay and limestone , rich red land

VARIETY : Aligoté , born from the crossing of the Pinot Noir and the Gouet .

CUTTING MODE: short cut in Guyot

YEAR OF PLANTATION : 1990

manual harvest

Aged in lightning for 8 months on the lees.

Dry and bright, a touch of fat. Its acidity and natural vivacity brings citrus aromas. A wine to be consume quickly, with a seafood platter, or fish. The real Kir is composed by aligoté of Burgundy with Cassis cream of Burgundy.

Serving temperature: 12 ° C